

Business Analysis Services

Business analysis services is an effective way to drive and implement change in organizations. We use agile methodologies to improve business processes in organizations and, therefore, align projects to corporate strategy.

The following services ensure that day to day activities are aligned with business operation excellence practice.

1. Change management support

We provide the change management team clients need for a smooth transition of business processes from requirements to solution so that the maximum value is delivered to stakeholders.

- Strategy analysis
- Elicitation
- Business planning and monitoring
- Lifecycle management
- Design definition and solution evaluation

2. Business analysis center of excellence (BACOE)

The business analysis center of excellence (BACOE) provides best practices to manage technology projects for organization. Our Business analysis center of excellence solution increase the quality of deliverables for technology projects, reduce risks, increase value of projects and provide a centralized point of expertise within organizations, turning success into a routine activity.

- Business analysis standards and best practices
- Business analysis development
- Business analysis services